- The rejection of claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 20, 26, 28-31, 33, 38, 40, 41, 43, 44, 48, 55, 60, 66, 67, 154, 175, 178, 179, 183-185, 187, 188 and 190-192 under 35 U.S.C. § 103 has been withdrawn in view of the amendments.

Claim Objections

Claim 55 is objected to because of the following informalities: The method of claim 54 (claim 54 has been canceled). Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1, 10, 15, 31, 40, 41, 43, 55, 187 and 188 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, the clause, the stored data item (Lines 32 and 36), references to the clause a stored data item (Line 19). However, the step of retrieving (Lines 32-37) is based on the properties of the deposited data item (Lines 26-31) after storing (Lines 21-23). It is unclear what data item is retrieved in claim 1, e.g., data item at Line 19 or the deposit data item after storing at Lines 21-23.

The clause the stored data item in claims 31, 187 and 188 is also rejected with the same reason.

Regarding claims 10, 15 and 41, the clause the data item references to other data item in the claims. It is unclear what data item is being referenced.

Regarding claims 40 and 43, the clause the deposit (Line 2) references to other data item in the claims. It is unclear what data item is being referenced.

Art Unit: 2168

Regarding claim 55, the clause the component data-items references to other data item in the claims. It is unclear what data item is being referenced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 20, 26, 28-31, 33, 38, 40, 41, 43, 44, 48, 55, 60, 66, 67, 154, 175, 178, 179, 183-185, 187, 188 and 190-192 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim(s) 1, 4, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 20, 26, 28-31, 33, 38, 40, 41, 43, 44, 48, 55, 60, 66, 67, 154, 175, 178, 179, 183-185, 187, 188 and 190-192, especially claim 1, are directed to a method by which more than one client program connected to a network. This claimed subject matter lacks a practical application of a judicial exception (law of nature, abstract idea, naturally occurring article/phenomenon) since it fails to produce a tangible result. Specifically, the claimed subject matter does not produce a tangible result because the claimed subject matter fails to produce a result that is limited to having real world value rather than a result that may be interpreted to be abstract in nature as, for example, a thought, a computation, or manipulated data. More specifically, the claimed subject matter provides for retrieving the stored data item (Line 32) only if comparing establishes that there is no match (Lines 21-23). Otherwise, not storing the deposited data item if a match is found and the method is stopped after not storing (the steps associating and retrieving (Lines 26-37 are not implemented because of this conditional statement). This produced result, not storing the deposited data item, remains in the abstract and, thus, fails to achieve the required status of having real world value.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 20, 26, 28-31, 33, 38, 40, 41, 43, 44, 48, 55, 60, 66, 67, 154, 175, 178, 179, 183-185, 187, 188 and 190-192 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the objection and rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 101 and 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
